SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED FROM MANY RAIDS ON THE CINCINNATI BREWERIES

BEER OF ILLEGAL ALCOHOLIC STRENGTH

CINCINNATI, O., November 19.—The analysis of twenty samples of beer seized by federal prohibition agents at breweries and saloons here show that the alcoholic contents ranged from two to five percent. Sensational developments are expected from the seizure of the samples.

CINCINNATI, O., November 19.—Important developments are expected to follow raids made yesterday by federal prohibition agents on eight Cincinnati breweries and approximately 35 saloons. The raids were conducted by 35 prohibition agents brought here from northern Ohio, points by supervising federal prohibition agent Thomas E. Stone, of Baltimore, in charge of the Ohio-Maryland district.

At each place visited the agents took samples of beer and placed internal revenue seals on liquid goods not taken, warning the proprietors that no sales were to be made from the stocks until the samples which had been taken, could be analyzed.

It was said at the government building that analysis of samples of beer obtained by the prohibition agents and deputes from the office of the internal revenue collector have in a number of instances shown an alcoholic content in excess of the legal amount. It was indicated that in some cases the alcoholic content was as high as 3.12 and 4 percent.

Under the federal prohibition act, and also under the internal revenue laws, breweries which manufacture beer containing an alcoholic content of more than one percent or more are subject to seizure by the federal government. The intention is that should samples from several of the breweries seized by federal agents yesterday show an illegal alcoholic content, there is prospect that the internal revenue department officials at Washington will direct the seizure of these plants.

Searches surrounded the movement of the prohibition agents yesterday and all efforts to obtain from supervising prohibition agent Stone details as to the raids and as to the government's plans, were without result.

Former Empress Of Germany Is Critically Ill

DORMER HOLLAND, November 19.—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, who yesterday suffered another severe heart attack, appeared last night to be in a more serious condition than officials at Dorn Castle would admit. All her sons and daughters were notified of her illness, and are expected today. Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the former emperor, may also arrive today. Greatest depression prevails at Dorn Castle.

A bulletin issued at Dorn Castle this morning stated the former empress had passed a good night, and that her temperature was 35 degrees centigrade (95.4 Fahrenheit).

Leaking Chlorine Spreads Terror In Maysville

MAYSVILLE, KY., Nov. 19.—A leaking carboy of chlorine in a shipper through here last night spread terror along the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad in this vicinity, a number of persons being overcome by the fumes. Ollie Gully is in a critical condition today.

None of the fume-prostrated people, including eight men working on the dam here, were able to resume work today.

The car was taken from the train and placed on a siding temporarily. Hogs in the vicinity were immediately overcome. Finally the car was moved to a point 14 miles east and an expert from Nitro, W. Va., came down with gas masks and stopped the leak this morning.

Lowering Of Taxes In U. S. Depends Largely On Ability Of Europe To Pay Off Debts

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1920, by Times Pub. Co.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—It is a far cry from Geneva, where the league of nations is meeting, to the income tax division of the American treasury or the pocketbooks of the American people, but entirely aside from the international politics of the occasion the United States government is taking a deep interest in the effect of the league's meeting on the finances of Europe.

The pressure from all parts of the United States for a reduction of taxes is so overwhelming that the republicans in Congress which meet next month will find it necessary to make a statement upon the problem even before the next republican president takes office. Yet the officials more familiar with the taxation question seem to be almost united in their belief that taxes cannot be reduced unless the American government can sooner or later begin to export money from its various creditors in Europe. And the ability of European governments to pay America either the interest on the war debt, which alone amounts to $450,000,000 a year—or payments on the principal loaned during the war, approximately ten billions dollars, depends entirely on the credit situation inside Europe.

Disarmament is the single remedy which one hears discussed in official Washington. If European countries would cease thinking about future wars and agree to a disarmament program, they would have available not only money to pay America her interest but money to pay on the big war debt.

"No General Wage Reduction For Some Time"

YOUNGSTOWN, O., November 19.—"It is not likely that there will be a general reduction of wages for some time, but there surely will be later on—not, however, until the cost of living has been still further reduced," said a statement issued today to the employees of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, the largest independent steel company in the Youngstown district, by James A. Campbell, president of the company.

Declaring that "the outlook for business is not as promising as it has been, and that lack of demand because buyers are waiting for lower prices makes it probable that the plant cannot run to capacity, Mr. Campbell urges the steel workers to work every day and save as much as possible, putting off buying until prices are lower."

"Prices of steel products are considerably lower today than they were 30 days ago," the statement said, "so that the margin of profit in our operations is now very small. We are hoping, however, for lower prices on coal which has been unreasonably high. This would be of some help, but present costs of limestone and freight will not change much over the next six or eight months, and during this time we shall be operating on a very close margin, and probably not to full capacity."

In urging employees to put off buying houses until spring, Mr. Campbell said that there is every indication that building costs are going to be lower.

"Uncle Sam's Figures On Jap Population In Calif. Too Low,"

—SAYS NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 19.—The Japanese population figures for California, announced by the United States census bureau last Tuesday as being 101,000, are far short of the actual number of Japanese residents in the state, according to an article published in the BEE under the signature of V. S. McClatchy, its publisher.

The article declared that a census of the Japanese population of the state taken this year by the various Japanese associations, places the figure at 25,000 not including 5,000 California born minors now in school in Japan, who will return to this state.

The state board of control estimates the Japanese population at 25,000 and the registrar of vital statistics of the state board of health fixes the number at 25,000 although Mr. McClatchy says the registrar in a published article says "it is the personal opinion that the actual Japanese population is 100,000."

16 WOODSMEN DROWN AS FLAMES BURN BOAT

BANGOR, MAINE, November 19.—Sixteen woodsmen were drowned in Chesunook Lake, in the heart of the lumbering district, late yesterday afternoon when a motor boat took fire. The men were being taken across the lake from Chesunook dam to Cuxubasis. Efforts to quench the fire failing the party became panic-stricken and many leaped overboard, according to word brought here today.

RONOAKE POLICE IN A GUN DUEL WITH AUTO

RONOAKE, VA., November 19.—Informed that a bank at Glasgow, Va., had been robbed, Ronoake police early today attempted to halt an automobile as it entered the city, and in an ensuing gun battle one of the occupants of the automobile, believed to have been James D. Rodgers, of Philadelphia, was killed, and one of the officers, O. J. Hendricks, was wounded. The two other occupants of the automobile, William Porter and Charles Carter, later were captured in the outskirts of the city.

Search of the automobile, police said, disclosed an army barrack bag and a grip filled with liberty bonds and a quantity of jewelry. The value of the goods had not been ascertained by the police and officials of the bank have not been able to ascertain their loss, although they believe that no currency was taken. The bank has deposits totaling approximately $100,000.

First Picture By Telegraph

The picture printed above is a direct reproduction of the photograph sent by the Post-Dispatch from St. Louis to the World Building in New York and is reproduced "untouched" and the exact size received. The time of transmission of the photo of the Indian chief was eight minutes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The photograph of an Indian chief, laying on a desk in the offices of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, was transmitted by wire to the editorial rooms of the New York World recently in just eight minutes.

That picture, which accompanies this story, is the visible record of the first successful attempt ever made in America to transmit photographs over a wire, and the first demonstration of the apparatus invented by M. Edouard Belin, eminent French engineer and bearing the name of telegraph.

The apparatus, experts say, is destined to come into general use in a few years.

M. Belin was brought to the U. S. to make his experiments by the New York World.

U.S. Steel To Continue Present Base Prices Of All Commodities

NEW YORK, November 19.—The United States Steel Corporation announced today its decision to recommend to presidents of subsidiary companies that the "present base selling prices of all commodities continue in force unless and until it becomes necessary and proper to make changes to meet altered conditions."

This action was taken according to a statement issued by Chairman Elbert H. Gary, because of the importance of stabilizing business conditions at this time.

The statement follows:

"Our subsidiary companies have consistently and uninterruptedly maintained the base selling prices of all iron and steel interests of the United States and representatives of the government on March 21, 1919."

"Since that time production costs of all manufacturers of iron and steel, including an advancement of wage rates aggregating $51,000,000 per year to the steel corporation and larger freight rates, have materially increased. Under normal circumstances we would be justified in making additions to the average base prices."

"However, after deliberate and careful consideration we have decided to recommend to presidents of our subsidiary companies that present base selling prices of all commodities continue in force unless and until it becomes necessary and proper to make changes to meet altered conditions."

"We think stability in business is of highest importance and that every man to the extent of his opportunity and ability, and even at some sacrifice, is obligated to assist in stabilizing and maintaining prices on a fair and sane level. The producers, consumer and workman will be benefited by this attitude."

Eat Corn Meal And Improve Your Health

Do you know how to make corn meal cheese pudding? Or corn meal fish balls? Or Philadelphia scrapple? Or polenta? You may not even know what polenta is.

Then there is corn meal mush with fruit, batter-fried waffles, corn meal pulis and fritters. Only the initiated know the joy of crackling bread, ash cake, corn dodger, and corn pone.

There are a thousand ways to use corn meal and lend variety to the diet. Corn meal is nourishing, but aside from that it stimulates the innards like a massage does the scalp. It is just something enough to be indispensable.

There is more food value looked up in corn than in any other product of the American farm. The housewife who does not draw on it is overlooking the nation's greatest food reserve.

Get the benefits of the Department of Agriculture, which tells many ways to use corn meal. It is full of practical and tempting recipes.

Women Fined For Not Removing Their Hats In The Court Room

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Equal suffrage for women means that they must not wear their hats when in this courtroom, Justice of the Peace E. F. Argy declared when he fined two women $5 each for contempt of court when they refused to remove their hats. The women paid.

When the justice called the court to order, he said:

"Everybody will please remove their hats."

Mrs. Oscar McCormack and Mrs. Frederick McCormack failed to do so. The court insisted a woman, but the two continued to wear their hats.

"Five dollars and cost for contempt of court," said the justice. "If women can have equal suffrage with men they can also remove their hats in my court room."

Harding Year In Styles For Men

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 19.—New Year is to be a "Harding Year" in clothing styles for men, members of the Custom Cutters and Designers Association, were told by speakers at a dinner last night.

E. J. Foley, of Washington, an officer of the association and the President-elect Harding wears conservative suits, leaning to blues and dark grays and that is what all well dressed men will wear in 1921.

"There will be no frills in clothes next year," Mr. Foley said, "and conservatism will be the rule. It is to be a Harding year in styles."

780 PERSONS ARE TYPHOID STRICKEN IN SALEM, O.

SALEM, O., November 19.—Seven hundred and eighty persons were today suffering from typhoid fever in this little city of less than 10,000 people.

Four emergency hospitals established within the last few weeks were filled with patients and the situation according to R. A. Lamont, chairman of the citizens relief committee was said to be desperate.

"We have not yet reached the peak of the epidemic," said Mr. Lamont.

Several weeks ago the first case of typhoid appeared in Salem and was followed so quickly by others that alarm was felt. Local physicians traced the cause to the city water system. It was said, and the state health authorities were notified. The proper steps were taken to purify the water supply, but the number of cases continued to grow until today a total of 780 were reported. Eleven persons have died since the epidemic started.

Many of the victims are workmen employed in the town factories, and their families and it was necessary to open emergency hospitals in order to give them proper medical attention.

"We have appealed to the national headquarters of the American Red Cross as well as to the local division," said Mr. Lamont.

Prohibition Officer Is Attacked

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., November 19.—St. Glenn Young, of East St. Louis, prohibition enforcement officer, was attacked and beaten by a number of federal prisoners in the county jail here when he was incarcerated on an indictment returned at Madison county, charging him with murder. Jail attendants had put Young in the "bull pen" of the jail until a writ of habeas corpus could be secured for his release. While he was awaiting this writ, a number of the prisoners who held him responsible for their being in jail for violation of prohibition laws, attacked him.

Young was indicted for the murder of Luke Vickovic, on November 6, at Madison, Ill., during a rail.

$3,500,000 Robbery Is Cleared Up

COUNCIL BLIFFS, Ia., Nov. 19.—Seven more arrests, one confession, the recovery of a large amount of money, all in ten dollar bills, and the discovery of an automobile last night, resulted today in the clearing up of the mystery surrounding the $3,500,000 mail car robbery in the local yards Saturday night.

Two of the men, T. A. Daly and H. A. Reed, are white and the others are negroes. The money was recovered from a chicken house at the Daly home, following the confession of Reed.

The total amount of money recovered was not announced by the officials. The money has been given authority as high as three and a half million dollars were taken from a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy mail train last Saturday. They were bound from San Francisco in a sealed car to Council Bluffs.

Two persons in all are accused in the robbery.

Mrs. Daly, wife of the man under arrest and will be given a hearing before United States Commissioner W. A. Byers, tomorrow.

The automobile believed to have been used for carrying away the mail bags was found last night in a wooded area a few blocks from the scene of the robbery. The number on the engine had been tampered with.

Reed and Daly believed by officials to be leaders of the gang, are each 45 years of age. Daly has been working at the Omaha Grain Exchange, but Reed has been unemployed the last few weeks.

Reed was arrested last night following his implication in the case by Fred Doffenberger, a youth arrested several times ago. Reed was put through a severe drilling and at length gave information which led to the arrest this morning of Daly.

Federal officers announced this morning that the case had now been completed to all intents and purposes. The bags of currency, gold and bonds whose value has been given authority as high as three and a half million dollars were taken from a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy mail train last Saturday. They were bound from San Francisco in a sealed car to Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Daly, wife of the man under arrest, officials say, made a statement that her husband was at home at the time of the robbery and that Doffenberger brought the money to their home early Sunday morning, wrapped in packages.

According to Mrs. Daly's statement she overheard the men say that they had burned the rest of the contents of the sacks. After counting the money over, the statement continues, they hid it in the chicken house where it was found this morning by officials.

Zinke, of this city, at the German Deaconess Hospital here the following articles were removed from a woman patient's stomach: one brass tubing, eight inches long, quarter inch deep; one brass tubing seven inches long, quarter inch deep; one eight penny nail; one hair pin and one comb. The surgeon said that the woman admitted she had swallowed them.

President-Elect Found Welcome In The South That Made His Pulse Beat Faster

BY T. H. E. PORCHMAN
(Copyright, 1920, by Times Pub. Co.)
NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 18.—If the message which was delivered to the American people by their President-Elect here today a few hours before he sailed for the Canal Zone could be compressed into a single sentence, this sentence might be: "Let's all go to work courageously and confidently, living thriftily, manfully, and all our problems, international and domestic will solve themselves satisfactorily enough."

Arriving in the colorful old Creole city of the south Senator Harding found a welcome that made his pulse beat faster. For the century old streets were jammed with cheering southlanders and were vied with decorations in honor of the next Republican President. Certainly no Republican chief ever received such a hearty greeting as went out to Mr. Harding.

It was difficult to satisfy the immense throngs that clamored for just a glimpse of their next President. No where in the north has the Senator received a more enthusiastic reception. In response to the cheering from Louisiana and her grateful neighbors Mr. Harding delivered the second public address he has made since becoming President-Elect. Before the assembled business men of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce he made a speech which, clearly reflecting his own point of view as to how the crisis of reconstruction and readjustment must be met, just as politically suggested to every citizen where his duty and patriotic duty now lies in the difficult period of peace.

A Steady Speech with Optimism

It was a steady speech, threaded through with optimistic faith in the strength of Democratic government and in the ability of the American people to pull themselves together and work out, by a policy of sensible compromise and take, the troublesome problems that face the country.

Not the least interesting part of the address was Senator Harding's reminder, "If we are effective in solving our problems at home we shall be the better able to help solve those of the world as well as our part in modern civilization," and still another comment which attracted the especial interest of the New Orleans merchants, bankers and business men when Mr. Harding said:

Common Sense Needed

"Neither our own nor the world's situation is to be worked out through any violent nostrum, through any miracle of statesmanship, through any government panacea. Government is but the agency to administer the collective, organized public service. Sanity, clear thinking, common sense, honesty, cooperation in official circles" (Continued on Page 12)

500 Radicals To Be Deported

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 19.—More than 500 Russian radicals remain to be deported, it was said today at the department of labor. All except forty of these are at liberty on bail, but the others are held in confinement at their island, Boston, and Ellis Island, N. Y., as they are regarded as too dangerous to be allowed at liberty even temporarily.

Delay in deporting the Russians was explained at the department to be due to a refusal of the Scandinavian countries to receive the deportees and to the closing of the frontier between Finland and Russia.

Grain And Provision Prices Drop

CHICAGO, Nov. 19—Grain prices slumped heavily downward today all along the line, with hogs and provisions following suit. Corn led the way, notwithstanding that it was already lower than at any time since 1915.

Expected greatly enlarged pressure of offerings from the new crop of corn appeared to be a leading factor in emphasizing bearish sentiment caused by unsettled financial and economic conditions. As a result, before the day was half over, wheat had fallen 7 1/2 cents to $1.73 1/4 to December delivery and to $1.63 for March. Corn was off 1/2 to 1/4 to 1/8 December and oats down to 45 1/2 for May. The severity of the new breaks in prices and the extent of the accompanying selling to liquidate holdings excited much comment. It was pointed out in this connection that the value of corn had now been cut from $1.82 1/2 a bushel to less than 70¢ in 5 1/2 months, whereas it was two years after World war started before a bushel of corn could command an even $1.

ALLEGED MURDERESS PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Unable to appear in court by reason of her poor physical condition, Mrs. Pauline Adams, aged fifteen, street woman, indicted for second degree murder for killing her neighbor, William Bond, on Oct. 23, 1920, pleaded not guilty when arraigned before Judge Thomas at the county jail, new Friday morning. The court fixed her bond at $2,500 and Judge Blair, who has been retained to defend her, stated that an effort will be made to furnish the bond and secure the release of the accused immediately.

Prosecutor Sheppard asked that the case be assigned for trial at an early date but Judge Blair declared that he was tied up with other legal work and that the case would probably be tried in December.

The woman, it is claimed, shot Bond to death, following some trouble between her grandchildren and the children of her victim.

OVERCHARGES IN MILK; EMPLOYE GOT 'RAKE-OFF'

NEW YORK, November 19.—Testimony of former special agents of the treasury department, virtually all of whom were withdrawn from investigation of United States shipping board purchases and accounts after a brief period of such work marked the opening of today's hearing by the congressional board affairs here.

Peter J. Sullivan, one of these former agents who after about "a month on the job", was transferred to the desert hills of Nogales, Arizona, told of a shipping board purchasing agent at New York, who while on the government pay roll, continued to draw his salary from his former employer, the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company.

This man's name, Sullivan said, was David Wabmond, with whom Sullivan had trouble. Wabmond objected to Sullivan's questioning of his subordinates except in his presence and used threatening language to him, Sullivan testified.

Martin D. Jewell, another former treasury department agent, said he had discovered overcharges in purchases of condensed milk in which a shipping board employee had received a commission of $212. The board paid $10,825 for this purchase, including an over charge of $2,450, Jewell said.

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Wise—How many electoral votes did President Wilson get the last time and how many votes does it take to make an electoral vote? Ans.—All states under ground in New York City? A TIMES READER.

In 1912 Wilson got 435 electoral votes, Roosevelt 88, and Taft 8. Each state is represented in an Electoral College by as many Electors as it is entitled to have senators and representatives in the National Congress. States cast their ballots for these electoral electors. The voters in each state may vote for as many electors as the state is entitled to have in the Electoral College. The electors, in the number to which the state is entitled, receiving the largest number of popular votes represent the state in the electoral college. The electoral college of 1921 will consist of 531 electors. 292 votes are necessary for election. Ohio has 24 electoral votes. Naturally the votes in New York are the same as they are elsewhere, some overseas and some under foot.

Dear Dolly—I saw where someone asked you how to get rid of smelly feet. Now Dolly I got rid of smelly feet ten years ago and I would like to know how to restore the smell again. THANKS.

Don't wash your stockings or feet but once a year and I'll guarantee you have all the odor you want.

Dear Dolly—I am coming to you for advice. I am twenty-seven years old and a widow. I talked to a girl before my marriage and really loved her. She also seemed to love me. But she did not talk just to suit me. Now whenever she sees me she makes the world of me and I still love her and everybody has talked and said soon as I lost my wife they believed we would make up again. I love her and want her but I am afraid people may talk about us making up again and have hard thoughts. Please advise me what you think best in this about it.

BRIGHT EYES.

If your wife has been dead a reasonable length of time. It would be all right for you to go with your former sweetheart. I don't see why people should talk, as such things happen all the time. They'll talk if you do, and they'll talk if you don't.

MARY—They probably could, but I don't think they would, under the circumstances. You would have to raise your ages if you expect to get by with it.

Dear Miss Wise—Can you please tell me the name of a paper published in Louisville, Ky. also who could I write to concerning work there? THANK YOU.

Papers published in Louisville are the World-News, The Times, and the Public Journal. What kind of work do you want. The N. and W. shops are located there. If you are a railroad, you might write to the head of the different departments. If you have a job here I would advise you to hold onto it for awhile.

Miss Dolly—What do you think of a mother that will not stay at home and send her children to school? Who should she be reported to?

WEST END READER.

Report her to Mr. John Lloyd, Third Fifth street. Phone 557-1.

Dear Dolly—Do you think muffs will be stylish this winter, I mean the oval shaped ones? Oh yes, how should a girl of fifteen wear her hair?

BROWN EYES.

Muffs are always stylish for little girls, and for grownups too. If they don't clash with the fur on their coats or suits. There are different shapes. Hat, round and oval. Wear your hair the same as other girls your age. Most of them wear it hanging down their backs in one or two braids and tied with a bow or fastened with a barrette.

Dear Miss Wise—As you have helped so many, I am coming to you for a little help, Dolly. I am going to get married, and since I have been in Portsmouth I have made my home with my aunt for fifteen years. Now what I want to know is, should my aunt send out the announcements or should my mother send them out, my mother lives in the West.

IGNORANT.

Since you have been making your home with your aunt it would be perfectly all right for her to send out the announcements. If your mother is living, make the cards read Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Blank announce the marriage of their niece, etc. If you would rather have your parents send out the cards, you could get them ready to hand here and parcel post them to your mother and have her mail them from your home city, the same day, or a few days after the ceremony was performed here or wherever it happens to take place.

Dear Miss Wise—What is the fate to N. Y. City? Is it lawful to send liquor by express and parcel post? How should it be packed? Now Miss Wise I don't mean to sell it, but give it to a pal of mine. I am ignorant of the laws and wish you would please put me wise.

FARMER BOY.

Write to the N. & W. E. O. and C. & O. ticket offices for information about rates to New York. You cannot ship liquor, so don't try it or you are liable to be arrested. You can give it away in your own home, unless your home is a place of public resort. If your pal likes it that well, I imagine he would be willing to pay you a visit, since you seem to have something in your cellar.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you kindly tell me if a velvet plush coat can be dyed? Would be very thankful for your information. MARY.

I would advise you to take the coat to a professional and ask his advice.

Louise Glann the Famous Actress Says Show Me a Memory Girl or Woman and I'll Show You a Neglected Complexion.

MISS LOUISE GLANN

With a Soft, Peach-Like, Velvety Skin Every Woman Would Be Attractive. Nothing So Good for Skin as Ordinary Facial.

New York.—The girl or woman who is passed by without a glance of admiration is a neglected complexion. Louise Glann, the famous actress, says that the most neglected complexion is the one that is not properly cared for. She says that a woman's skin is her most valuable asset and that it should be treated with the same care and attention as her hair and her dress.

Glann says that the most common mistake that women make is to neglect their skin. She says that many women will spend hundreds of dollars on their hair and their dress, but they will neglect their skin. She says that a woman's skin should be treated with a soft, peach-like, velvety skin. She says that the best way to achieve this is by using a good facial cream.

Glann says that she has used a facial cream for many years and that it has kept her skin in perfect condition. She says that she has never had a wrinkle or a blemish on her skin. COURT HOUSE

Builder Granted In Rice Case
Judge Thomas Friday granted a rehearing in the case of William Rice against The Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light Company, sustaining a contention of counsel for the defendant that the amount awarded by the jury was in excess of the plaintiff's actual damages. The court in reducing the verdict from $2,317.52 to $1,500.00, did that the plaintiff was entitled to no compensation, but declared that no judgment should be rendered in the case in which Rice was injured.

Rice, who is a painter, employed by N. & W. and lives at Sciotoville, was injured when street cars crashed together near Sciotoville last January. He was a passenger on one of the cars. His injuries included a broken arm, a broken leg, a broken hip, and a broken neck. He was taken to the hospital and later to the home of his mother, Mrs. E. F. Miller, for five and a half months and still for the same.

Lillian Rice, 1315 Summit street, charges neglect, cruelty and desertion in her suit for divorce and alimony with custody of her child, filed in Common Pleas court Friday against Dorbert Rice, steelworker, employed at the Whitaker-Glessner plant, New Boston. She says they were married Sept. 18, 1918, and then through Attorney R. F. Kilmble complains that Rice failed to support her properly, spent much of his time away from home associating with other women, besides, habitually quarreled, nagged and abused her, she says. Furthermore, she declares, that he told her he did not love her and he manifested no affection for her or their child, she claims, and on Sept. 15 last abandoned her.

The wife secured a temporary injunction tying up the defendant's wages until the case can be heard on its merits.

Alleges Wife Abandoned Him

You have watched with the consuming interest of a customer the inception, variety, and development of the multitude of sales in the many stores from everywhere in an effort to get out from under the inflation of prices, in the past month. Every excuse was offered—some minor losses were taken on staples to give the flavor of sincerity and convince the public that they ought to spend their money now to help the merchant save his bacon.

If you have followed our advertisements and will reflect, you will doubtless recall that The Village Store announced reductions from one to two weeks before other stores conceived the idea. And, if you remember our reductions a month ago showed in one instance 10c a yard less on popular muslin than it has since been quoted in public announcements. The same is true of other things. Indeed many of the most drastically reduced prices have never yet reached the low level of our previous regular highest prices. The Village Store frankly advised you to wait, and was content merely to quote reductions for your guidance.

Thus we believe the time for which we have waited has arrived, and we can honestly solicit your business with a clear conscience that we have done our best to protect our trade.

Remember, many of these prices are special for sale week only and will be higher again unless the market develops unexpected weakness.

Remember, there isn't anything but high quality merchandise offered here. There is ever present the acute temptation to buy the cheapest stuff so that one can quote a much lower price in one's advertisement.

Remember, that contrary to accepted business principle and established custom in sales of this character—in a further effort to protect our trade we will accept return or exchange of any merchandise purchased from us within 1 week from date if it is found unsatisfactory in any way or if in the meantime, it is obtainable elsewhere for a less price, provided only that it is in same condition as when sold.

Further, remember, that we will accept telephone or mail orders on approval, so sure are we of our acceptable qualities and low prices.

All prices are strictly subject to quantities on hands which, in our opinion, are sufficient for a normal 30 day period yet and concentrated or unprecedented demand would deplete stocks rapidly—therefore we urge that you do not postpone your personal inspection of these offerings a day later than absolutely necessary.

We firmly believe that our country has found herself and is "coming to." If so, now is the time for you to buy before the reaction of higher price levels sets in.

HOSPITAL ADDITION WILL BE PUT UP TO THE CITY COUNCIL

The $100,000 hospital bond issue proposition will be presented to the city council at a special meeting of that body as a whole with the hospital committee of the Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday at 7 p. m.

This was decided at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce committee yesterday with three members of the council present, all of whom declared themselves in favor of presenting the question to the council.

If the city council, by its own vote, decides to go ahead with the original plans of building the additions to the present Hospital, the money for the improvements will have to come out of the operating expenses of the city, but the proponents of the addition point to the fact that the hospital has been self-supporting for the past eight months and will end the year with a balance between $5,000 and $5,050.

The members of the city council, voting as a whole, who will decide the fate of the hospital question, are Howard Rungin, Edward Westphal, J. B. Bennett, Allen Chubb, Albert Westphal, George Osborn and Charles Schirrmann. G. W. Vandervoort is president of the council.

The question requires a two-thirds vote to become effective.

How to Keep Rubber Soft.

A prominent tire manufacturer says that an excellent way to prevent hardening of inner tubes when they are stored for the winter is to place them in hot water once a month or every six weeks. They should be immersed for just a couple of minutes, and should then be carefully dried and partly inflated before being hung up again. This treatment serves to keep the rubber pliable and soft.

Empties Derailed

An eastbound C. & O. freight train derailed four empty cars just east of Russell last night, delaying traffic for an hour.

Ancient Invention Used on Motors.
Perhaps the oldest design used in the modern automobile is that of the universal joint, which in principle is identical with the first universal developed by Cardan around 1530 A. D. Such joints are used in all modern automobiles and trucks in order to allow the propeller shaft to revolve and at the same time move up and down and sideways relative to the rear axle. The axle bounces up and down according to road conditions, but the propeller shaft must connect this bouncing part with another unit attached to the frame of the car.

Many Inquiries Being Made About C. of C. Houses

Many inquiries are being received daily by officials of the Home Building Company that is being conducted as an auxiliary organization of the Chamber of Commerce, in regard to the 25 houses being built by this company to relieve the acute shortage in the housing situation that is gripping this city, as well as many others. For the benefit of those who are interested in the houses, a $50 option has been agreed upon that will allow interested persons to make their selection of the houses when completed. If any persons buy these houses now, or take an option on them, any future changes desired may be made. The first of the houses will be completed in January and it is expected that they will all be completed by the middle of February.

Herb Sap Made

Him Frisky As He Was Years Ago

Proved It By The Way He Grippled Me In Shaking Hands

By R. M. Hodes

LOUISVILLE, KY.—John Hazman, 1127 Goss avenue, old time resident of Louisville, told me it was none of my business how old he is. He's been taking Herb Sap, the great tonic and stomach medicine, and I wanted to get some satisfaction about him. "You over state," Hazman conceded. "And I will say that since taking Herb Sap my clock has been turned back 20 years. Just look at me!" I did as commanded and must say that he didn't look like the same person as when he came to the drug store to buy me a month before. "A month ago," he continued, "when I called to see you, you'll remember I was in bad shape. I couldn't eat a blessed thing, as I had no appetite. My stomach had gone completely back on me. I had aches and pains in not only my back and limbs, but in every part of my body. It seemed like I was weak as a cat and so nervous that my whole body was wet from cold sweats. Just before I came down to work a tick I began to notice a change. Though in 45 years after taking Herb Sap and now after having finished the second bottle I feel rejuvenated and eat well. I'm hungry all the time. I'm right on the job now, every day, a new man physically with new mental vigor and a new power of sustained effort. Herb Sap is surely a wonderful tonic. It proved a blessing to me." Herb Sap is now obtainable here at Flecker & Strecker's Pharmacy or any reliable dealer in this vicinity. Your favorite druggist, no matter where located, can get it for you.—Adv.

TWENTY-FOUR YEARS AGO

A club of nine of "our brightest boys" was formed. Plans were made to spend the summer at Lakeside, and each one worked to make expenses by selling home-made candy. The boys were Charles Brown, Henry Pursell, Ralph Hughes, Howard Miller, Willie Moore, John Herriek, Walter Wilhelm, Harold Wendelken and Willard Angle.

A party of eight treated themselves to an oyster supper at Freshell's. Those in the party were D. L. Webb, Frank Boyce, W. H. Rhodes, Charles Calvin, Chris Knott, Sam Williams, Frank Watkins and Wes. Hazlett.

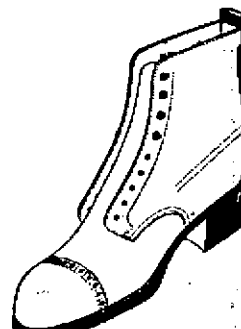

Mrs. Felix Hans entertained the Kaffee Klatch at her home.

Sound of Bells Carried Far.

The oral law of the Jews, consisting of many traditions touching the Mosaic law, tells that the ancient Hebrews employed also larger bells, which were called Megrephoth. These were used on different occasions by the multitude of temple officers and caused frequently such a noise in the streets of Jerusalem that it was hard to catch the words of a speaker. Their purpose was to summon the Levites to come and sing, and to apprise persons generally that the unclean might be brought to the gate named Kisanor. These bells, so says the Mishna, when sounded at their fullest power, could be heard at least eighteen miles from Jerusalem.

HEARST'S MAGAZINE—A LIBERAL EDUCATION

Do Your Children Go to Church?

Your father and grandfather believed in religion and prayer. The Bible went westward with rifles and axes in prairie schooners. In 1861—when the great moral clash came—prayer was a great part of the life of our nation.

But to-day we are not a church-going nation. Only one in every three of the 1,600,000,000 human beings on this earth are nominal worshippers of the God of the Jews and Gentiles. Will the next generation try to get along without religion?

A century or half a century from now will the United States be classed among the nations that believe in God?

Or will the ever-changing generations—products of the generation we are now producing—wish it otherwise? And, in so deciding, will they make it a better or a worse land than it is today?

IRISH PARLIAMENT AT BELFAST FOR SIX NORTHEAST COUNTIES TO BE SET UP AS EXAMPLE TO SINN FEINERS

DUBLIN—The Irish parliament at Belfast last week was more than the expected to be set up immediately. The House of Commons passed the bill for the establishment of the Irish parliament at Belfast. It was pointed out that this would serve as an example for all the rest of Ireland, and have a steady effect by showing the Sinn Feiners that Dublin and the other 26 counties could have precisely the same machinery of self-government as Belfast will have for the six counties.

There is some agitation for amendments to the financial terms of the Home Rule Bill. The amendments are opposed to handing over to any Irish body the control of customs and excise. They do not want this privilege for themselves and are determined that it shall not be made available for the rest of Ireland, fearing that it might be used to the detriment of industry in the northern section of the country.

One suggestion has been made that Ireland's contribution to the imperial funds shall be limited to the Irish income tax and super-tax, which at present amounts to 10,000,000 pounds or 12,000,000 pounds a year.

Outside of Ulster, however, none of these points is being discussed at all. Complete separation and an independent republic is the Sinn Fein policy, while even the moderate demand a government for all Ireland on dominion lines as completely free in finance as Canada. The government's plan does nothing to meet this view and its creation of two separate parliaments in Ireland with equal powers is resented by every section of politicians in the south and west.

VISCOUNT TO MARRY A HAIRDRESSER

LONDON—The engagement of an unnamed Charles Saunders Dumas, Viscount Mottistone, aged 77, of 30, Whitehall, London, and Miss Margaret Todd, 40 years old, an Edinburgh hairdresser, described as of distinguished appearance.

The Viscount was British consul at Santos, Brazil, in 1912 and his first wife was Grace Scully, of Rio de Janeiro, who died in 1890. His ancestor, the first Viscount, was the great Duke of Devonshire, known as the uncrowned king of Scotland.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

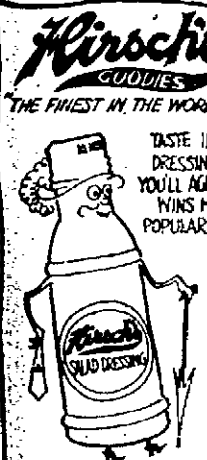

New Elixir, Called Aspirinal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes. Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratory; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes. If you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit, don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—Adv.

why we sell the pianos of the House of Baldwin and why you should buy them

Reputation—These instruments are recognized as the best not only in America but throughout the world. Highest awards at Paris and St. Louis won in competition with all well-known makes prove their merit.

Tone—The most ravishing tonal qualities ever produced have made Baldwin instruments the favorite of such artists as De Pachman, Sembrich, La Forge, Bloch, Adla, Scharwenka, Brown, Levitzki and Amato.

Factory Facilities—The House of Baldwin is one of the largest piano manufacturing organizations in the world. Every part of every instrument is made in the Baldwin factories. Every instrument is a Baldwin product throughout.

Selling Method—Every Baldwin instrument is sold practically direct from factory to consumer. There are no jobbers or middlemen in the usual sense. Every Baldwin dealer is a direct factory representative—a member of the House of Baldwin. Every purchaser deals to all practical purposes directly with the makers.

Price—Immense output and elimination of unnecessary profits cut cost to the minimum. In no other piano factories are quality instruments produced on so economical a basis. In no other selling organization are pianos sold with so little expense to the consumer.

Extent of Line—There is a piano for every purse in the Baldwin Line. The Baldwin, The Elington, The Hamilton and The Howard provide a range of price varying from the lowest figure for which a good piano can be produced to as high as you want to go. And for those who desire a player-piano there is the Mautz also made in a similar variety of prices.

Guarantee—Every instrument of these makers bears their unconditional guarantee. There is no divided responsibility when you buy a piano or player-piano from the House of Baldwin. These manufacturers are particular to see that every instrument fulfills everything claimed for it.

We are showing right now an excellent stock of these superb instruments especially selected for the Christmas season. We invite you to come in and hear them.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. Z. Holman entertained pleasantly at her home on Church street with an informal party in honor of Mrs. Harry E. Taylor of Portsmouth and Mrs. W. M. Gaffey of Pittsburgh. Is Nursing Sore Hand

E. E. Gordon, 2017 Seventeenth street, whose left hand was seriously lacerated when it became caught in a sawmill of which he is the owner in West Virginia, three weeks ago, is now lacerated and he will be unable to do any work or be out of his home the entire winter.

Shortly after the accident, when he was at the home of his sister Mrs. W. F. Ritter, infection set in necessitating the removal of the fourth finger. His hand was severely lacerated and it is feared he may lose that. He will be unable to use his hand for some time.

They Had Good Luck

Judge J. S. Thomas and Isaac MacFarlane returned Thursday night from Florida where they spent the week hunting rabbits. The two hunters enjoyed some good shooting and had splendid success, at least they brought back a big bunch of game as evidence of their marksmanship.

Hayes Is Dismissed

Admitting guilt of violating traffic regulations by failing to have a tail light burning on their automobiles, J. C. Rice, Charles Turkey, Arthur Adams and O. Clemens were fined the costs by Judge Small in Municipal court Friday and Lennie Hayes, who appeared to meet a similar charge, was dismissed. Hayes claimed the light on his car was not out more than a couple of minutes and that it resulted from him turning the wrong times.

Art in A. D. 650. "The Book of Kells" gives the world a glimpse of one of the most magnificent and mysterious books in existence. Of undetermined age, "The Book of Kells" is a marvelously illuminated manuscript of the Four Gospels, was written when it was stolen from the Abbey of Kells (Co. Meath), Ireland by the thieves of its jewel, the Lindisfarne Gospels, and hidden. After some months it was recovered. Some 20 leaves of the manuscript survive at Trinity College Library, Dublin, and 21 of these, reproduced in the new edition, give an idea of the extraordinary command of design and workmanship of the old Irish illuminators. These works may date from 650 to 850, certainly not later than 850.

Sell That Worked Miracles. Many tales of the supernatural are told of the power of the "Book of Kells" in warding off evil spirits and the evil eye. In 1850, a power of evil spirits was reported regarding the power of the "Book of Kells" in warding off evil spirits. "As Light as Air"

"I have often been accused at this season," writes a correspondent. "It is used by novelists and poets in a manner which suggests that air has no weight. But I doubt if they would be so carried away by a dream of air if it were compressed into a dress suit case. Air weighs 75 pounds a thousand cubic feet, and a room that measures 20 feet long by 10 feet wide by 12 feet high contains 180 pounds of air."

Fodine Dangerous Drug.

Fumes of Fodine have recently been urged as a method of administering that drug preferable to the usual method. It has been shown by experiments that fumes are absorbed through the skin, and when inhaled are absorbed by the lungs, but it is very dangerous even in small quantities, especially when it is in any disease of the respiratory passages.

Here's a Fish Story.

Trout vary greatly within the species, according to the nature of the waters they inhabit, the variations being manifested in their color, size, form and in development. Says the American Forestry Magazine, "As to their weight, Mr. Hallack, a famous American fisherman, claims to have known of one that weighed several pounds, while as a rule, they do not run over three or four pounds."

A Bit Too Much.

The new quartermaster on the post freighter Sioux was at the wheel and was rattled. First the ship swung badly to port, then to starboard, and then back again. The old skipper stood her antics as long as he could, and then burst forth: "Say, son," he shouted, "I don't mind your getting your name in the old pond, but for the love of Mike, stop going back to read it!"—American Legion Weekly.

Remarkable Diary.

Pepys' diary is a unique work by Samuel Pepys (1633-1703), giving a curious and faithful account of the times in England from 1639 to 1699. It includes almost every phase of public and social life, from the ravages of the court to the poorest detail of week-day existence. The book is written in shorthand and was not discovered until a century after the author's death. It was deciphered and published (though in a mutilated form) by Lord Braybrooke in 1725.

Little Law in Albania.

Except in a few communities in the South, the Albanians live in tribal organizations, in scattered communities in the mountains, where each man defends his home and his rights with his rifle, which he never lays down when out of doors. They are governed by a sort of common law, which is known as the Law of Lek. Lek was a more or less traditional law giver of the powerful family of Dukadint.

Makes Hot Water Bottles Last Longer.

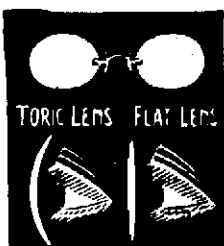

To make a hot water bottle last longer and fit the body more comfortably, remove all air from the bottle after filling and before screwing in the stopper, by resting the bottle on a sheet or table, holding the top of the bottle in one hand and gently pressing down until the water comes to the opening. Hold in this position while the stopper is screwed in. The bottle should not be more than two-thirds full.—M. H. S., Iowa.

Telling the "Passing Bell."

The passing bell was rung in English pre-reformation times for the dying as well as after death. The practice grew out of the belief that devils and evil spirits troubled the dying and lay in wait to torment the soul when it had left the body. After the reformation the passing bell was discontinued, although tolling after a death is still the custom.

PRESBYTERIAL SCHOOL BIG SUCCESS

The first day of the Presbyterian school held morning, afternoon and evening at the First Presbyterian church was a big success from every standpoint and the many delegates in attendance were well pleased with the splendid subjects presented by the speakers and instructors who are among the best in the Presbyterian field in this section. Another day's school was held today at Second Presbyterian church. This school opened at 9:30 o'clock this morning and sessions will also be held afternoon and evening.

Tonight's program at Second Presbyterian:

8:00 p. m.—Song service.
8:10 p. m.—Prayer and Devotion—Rev. Leigh O. Wright, Pastor at Large, Portsmouth Presbytery.
8:15 p. m.—Address—Our National Moral Welfare—Dr. J. H. Dickson, Offering.
8:45 p. m.—Illustrated Lecture—The Presbyterian Church at Work Over Seas—Dr. Geo. H. Trull.
9:30 p. m.—Conservation Closing.

An unusually strong program was presented Thursday. The first afternoon speaker was Miss Mabel M. Sheddley, Assistant Secretary of the Women's Board of Home Missions, who dealt with the relation of women's work to the general Home Mission task. Dr. Wm. F. Weir outlined carefully the program of Assembly's Men's Work Committee, as related to the other Boards and Agencies. Mr. W. D. Howell again took up the theme of Religious Education, dealing with the individual Church, Home, Child and Community. Rev. W. E. Finley followed these with a continuation of his outline of the work of the Home Board. A general conference and question box came next and the school adjourned for a social hour.

At six o'clock a splendid crowd of men gathered in the dining room at the Men's Work Banquet. The Rev.

E. J. Lewis of Jackson presided, introducing the Rev. Wm. F. Weir, D. D., Secretary of Assembly's Committee on Men's Work, who made a very strong address on "Men's Work for the Individual Church." Among other things Dr. Weir said: "Our men do not have as clear an understanding and as profound a conviction regarding the Church as they should have. Our men are very busy; they are driven; but they are doing things they feel are most pressing. The 500,000 men in our church make the most powerful body of men in the nation. We must make them see that the Church of Jesus Christ is as unique among organizations as Jesus Christ is unique among men, and then they will find the most pressing task of all is the one that concerns the Church. There is an organization and a structure; there are powers, processes and relationships that do not exist anywhere else. The Church is at the center of things; it does not make any difference what else we do if we do not keep the Church at the front."

The public meeting in the auditorium that followed, drew a large crowd of interested Presbyterians. The devotional period was led by the Rev. John A. Cowan, of Georgetown, Moderator of Portsmouth Presbytery. The first address of the evening was a masterly affair, and delivered by the Rev. Wm. W. Boyd, D. D., president of the Western College for Women at Oxford, and Vice Moderator of the First General Assembly. Dr. Boyd's theme was "Christian Education, the Key to the Future," and he developed it by contrasting the varied civilizations of the world with that of Christianity in the United States. He pointed out the failure of the latter in the face of the world's progress, and the desire for a new life. He pressed his point by illustrating the method of answering this crisis first on the intellectual plane, to their satisfaction, and then by passing deeper, for the failure of the latter that prompted the inquiry: "This, he felt, was the unique thing about Christian Civilization. It must go far beyond the intellectual domain and straighten out the affairs of the heart."

"You are not far from the kingdom," said Jesus to the Scribes and Pharisees, but without, after all, is it possible that God is saying this to our nation? Are we getting everything else save the one vital thing that will take us over into the kingdom? Is an education complete when it gives power without giving the life which is the end, the purpose of that power? Dr. Boyd contrasted the education of results in Germany, in their failure to produce things we Americans feel were vital, with our own attempts in our Christian colleges to get the best out of the Christian element in Education. He deeply interested his audience as he told of a young lady applicant for a position as teacher in his college who was not sure she had a religious experience, nor did she think from her German training, that it was necessary for her to influence her pupils religiously, and he went on to show how she, herself, finally realized how inadequate was her own preparation for her American needs.

"Not rarely the development of the intellect," said the speaker, "is the purpose of our Christian Education, but rather the supreme devotion of the mind must be toward religion, and it must be trained to operate in all areas that are open to the trained Christian student of today."

The second speaker of the evening, Rev. W. E. Finley, of the Home Board, gave an illustrated lecture on "The Presbyterian Church at Work in America," which was very concrete and interesting, embracing the entire field of the work of the Home Board. This morning the School convened at the Second Presbyterian Church, the Rev. W. S. Harold of Stoughton leading the devotional period. The following speakers occupied the forenoon session:

Program of the Foreign Board as related to the whole Church, Rev. Geo. H. Trull; Prebaptism and Practice of Stewardship, Dr. E. W. Veatch. Program of the Board of War, Peace and Moral Welfare in these "dry" days, Prof. J. H. Dickson.

Attending to Chickens and Garden

"My neighbors are surprised to see me looking so well, for they thought I would not live to see summer. I had such pain around my heart as to cause me to faint. I knew it came from beating and pressure of gas in my stomach. A friend in St. Louis told me to use May's Wood Grain Remedy and I now feel better than in all my life. I am doing my own work, attending to my children and my garden and have cleaned house." STATUE OF GENERAL GRANT BEING PLACED IN POSITION IN CAPITAL

Photograph shows the statue of General Grant being hoisted into place on its pedestal.

The statue of General Grant, which now stands in position in the botanical gardens in Washington, was last recently completed. It was quite a task to raise the figure of Grant on his horse to the high pedestal. The photograph shows the statue being placed in position. It is in full view of the capital.

"King's Tobacco Pipe"

This is a popular nickname for a peculiarly shaped pipe or furnace in the northeast corner of the tobacco warehouse belonging to the London docks. Here contraband goods, such as tobacco, cigars and tea, which had been smuggled in, were burned. Seized and undeclared goods are now sold at per cent sales, or distributed among public institutions, but damaged and worthless goods are still burned.

PEOPLE ARE TALKING OF THIS CINCINNATI MAN'S IMPROVEMENT

I'm Working Every Day Since Taking Vola-Tonic, Says Trester—Laid Off Most Of Time Before.

Friends of H. H. Trester, of 1829 Raymond street, Cincinnati, O., are talking of the recent big improvement in his health.

Wherever anybody asks me about the change in my health, I always tell them that it is due to taking Vola-Tonic," Mr. Trester said recently.

For three years I suffered so much chronic indigestion that I had to stop from my work most of the time. I did not digest properly at all. After every meal a lump would come up my stomach and chest and stay there for hours. It felt like the mass of food that has lodged in my stomach and I couldn't get it out any other way. It didn't make any difference what I ate. The result was always the same. The lump would form

I couldn't digest my food. I always had a severe pain in my stomach and chest after meals, too.

Of course, with my stomach in that condition I couldn't get any good out of food I ate and just kept losing weight and strength. Finally I became very weak and was in such bad condition that I couldn't work more than about one month out of every three. I'd work about a month and then get so bad I'd have to lay off for two months or more before I felt able to go back to work again.

"I was in very poor health when I started taking Vola-Tonic but it was only a few days until I could see I was improving. I kept on taking Vola-Tonic and have now taken five bottles in all and I feel like a different man."

"My digestion is just about perfect now. I can eat about anything I want without a bit of trouble afterward and digest my food perfectly. I'm never troubled with pain in my stomach and chest or with the lump forming as it did before. As a result, I have gained in weight and strength right along and am now working every day. I haven't had to lay off a single day since I started taking Vola-Tonic."

"Yes, all the neighbors on my way are talking about my improvement and I always tell them it is due to taking Vola-Tonic. I consider the work of Vola-Tonic in my case to be nothing short of remarkable and I'm glad to recommend this medicine publicly."

VOLA-TONIC, "Builder Of Strength," is sold in Portsmouth by Fisher & Stretch and all other good druggists.

NOTE: All Vola-Tonic testimonials are absolutely the whole truth. The original signed testimonials are on file at the office of the Vola Remedies Co., Cincinnati, O., and are open for inspection of the public at any time.—Adv.

The first fatal hanging accident of this part of the state was recorded Thursday afternoon when Walter Fields, 40 years old, married, farmer of near West Union, Adams county, was accidentally shot and killed by his neighbor and hunting friend, Paul Barnes, 30 years old and married. The men lived on farms two miles east of West Union and had been friends most of their life. Death was caused by loss of blood. Fields dying about midnight last night.

Fields and Barnes started on a rabbit hunt in Tiffin township near West Union and had been out several hours when they chased a rabbit to a brush pile. Both men climbed on the brush pile and were endeavoring to secure the bunny out into the open, when Barnes' foot slipped and in falling his hand slid down the gun barrel and against the trigger, discharging the gun. The men were close together and Fields received the full contents of the single barrel in his left knee. Both bones in the knee were broken. Barnes hurried to a neighboring farm house and secured help and the wounded man was carried to the house where Dr. Ellison of West Union attended him.

Fields had lost considerable blood by the time the physician had reached him. Although the doctor remained with him until a few minutes before death he was unable to prolong life.

Fields is survived by his widow, Barnes is a nervous wreck over the fatal shooting and at Manchester this morning it was stated that no charge would be filed as the shooting was purely accidental.

A very interesting contest is on between the Portsmouth, Chillicothe and the local camp, which will close on the last day of January. The camp having the smallest number of applications during this drive will banquet the one having the largest number.

The Board of Education of New Boston realizing that there should be a close relation between the schools and churches has granted the use of the gymnasium at least one night a week for the young people who attend the various churches, in which to play games.

All players must wear rubber soled shoes of some kind. No part of the school house is to be used except the gymnasium. That rule will be strictly enforced.

The young people of the Methodist church invite the young people of the other churches to meet with them in the gym on Monday, Nov. 22nd, at 6:30 to 8:30 to play volley ball. Later teams may be organized in each church to play contest games, but this game will be played by players from various churches who desire to play.

We desire to have an evening of play and fun and get acquainted. This is not for children under thirteen years of age. Later provisions may be made for them in the evening, but at present, at least, for the first meeting, no provision can be made for them.

Monday, Nov. 22 from 6:30 to 8:30 in the gymnasium of the High School building, for the young people who attend church or S. S. in New Boston. No smoking will be permitted in the building.

Immanuel Baptist Church Notes. Turn the kindness of Rev. Kayser of the Calvary Baptist church the pastor was able to show a series of large labeled pictures of the Indian life of our native Americans at the Wednesday night meeting. The wide difference produced by the acceptance of Christ was shown in their manner of life and in their personal appearance.

The church rejoices in the organization of a Young Peoples Society in the church Thursday evening. Mrs.

Robert Allbaugh is president of the new society, while the group leaders are Miss Olive Smith, Mrs. Caroline Dresser and Miss Robert Allbaugh. The ladies aid society will give a "Bible" Sale Wednesday, Nov. 24, in the morning.

Physicians are practically unanimous in recommending iodine. They prefer it in its best form—Lanated Iodine—which is soothing, healing and powerful, yet never irritates or blisters, and is practically tasteless. It is quickly absorbed into the tissues and glands, usually giving prompt relief.

James A. Hager and Fisher & Stretch have this agreeable iodine ointment and gladly recommend it as it gives unusual satisfaction. Be sure to get Lanated Iodine for best results.—Adv.

Takes on a Different Color When Your Blood Is Rich And Free From Poison

Try Taking Pepto-Mangan

If you feel Listless and Depressed Your Blood Is Clogged And Sluggish

Without knowing why, you find yourself feeling unhappy. You go around day after day half asleep. Interest in what is going on around you lags and life becomes dull. The beauty of radiant sunshine, lovely flowers and the entrancing miracles of life pass unheeded. Living, eating, sleeping, becoming more or less of a bore.

That is what clogged, sluggish blood does to you. It poisons your thoughts. You are only half alive.

You need a good blood-enriching tonic. Take Pepto-Mangan for a few weeks and notice the big improvement. Pepto-Mangan is an agreeable tonic and is heartily endorsed by physicians.

Your druggist has Pepto-Mangan in both "fruit" and "tablet" form. Buy whichever you prefer; one has exactly the same effect as the other. Make sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and look for the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," on the package.—adv.

Choral Society Is Growing

More members are wanted for the Portsmouth Choral Society that was organized several weeks ago and which holds meetings every Monday night at 8:30 in the public library.

This is the only organization of the kind in the city and was created to fill the need for some community musical club. The members of the club desire more members and wish to have it known that the club is open to all singing not necessarily trained, vocalists and all those who are interested in it.

In choral music are urged to attend the next meeting.

The aim of the organization is to stimulate the growth of vocal music and to give Portsmouth such an organization.

The officers of the organization are H. H. Meale, president, Miss Estella Wooty, secretary and Arthur Kugler, treasurer. Joseph Kershner is conductor. There are about 40 members of the Choral Society at the present time.

No stomach dosing. Hyomei is made chiefly of all of eucalyptus taken from the eucalyptus forest of inland Australia and combined with other excellent ingredients.

In inland Australia the atmosphere is so impregnated with balsam thrown out by the eucalyptus trees that germs do not thrive, and in consequence coughs, colds, catarrhs and other nose and throat afflictions are practically unknown.

The Fourth Red Cross headquarters and officials in charge of the drive are well-satisfied with the showing thus far.

The canvassers all got an early start this morning and are showing a fine spirit of enthusiasm which speaks well for the success of the drive. The city workers have all been asked to make a first report tonight and the real progress of the campaign will be known tomorrow.

A score of girls were at work in the Whitaker-Glossner Company on hourly shifts Thursday and a large number of memberships were secured.

OLD TIME PICTURES ARE ENJOYED AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON

The old order changeth yielding place to the new. This was strikingly proved to the large number of members of the Chamber of Commerce who attended the C. of C. luncheon at the United Brethren church Thursday morning when 600 slides were shown, giving those present a glimpse of the Portsmouth of long ago. The luncheon proved very interesting and all expressed themselves as more than repaid for the time spent. The slides were secured by the C. of C. through the kindness of Henry Loring, local post card manufacturer and collector of views such as shown last night. The slides started with the beginning of Portsmouth, showing a facsimile of a map of Portsmouth of 1717.

Then followed a picture of Henry Massie who made the town plat of Portsmouth in April, 1803. He was the original proprietor of the entire town site. A picture of the Portsmouth baseball team of 1866 was shown, Sam Harper being the only living member of that club. A horse drawn street car, stage coach, early river scenes, hotel scenes, Times newsboys of 20 years ago, various street scenes, old school buildings, old manufacturing plants and groups of their employees, fires that destroyed large buildings, founders of lodges, Memorial Day parades and present day scenes, were also shown. Mr. Loring was present to name many of the persons in the old pictures. The list also included pictures of men who helped put Portsmouth on the map in its early history. Many of the characters have places of note in Evans' history of Seoto county. The singing of old time songs invigorated the meeting at the start.

Weather Is No Barrier

In spite of the inclement weather the annual inspection of the right of way of the C. and O. Railway continues under the direction of Superintendent L. B. Allen, of the maintenance of way, accompanied by Superintendent H. E. Webb and sixty-eight other officials and employees. They crossed into Indiana yesterday to inspect the line between Covington and Chicago. The party will return to Huntington to disband.

Jail Doors Thrown Open

Despite Huntington's population of 50,000 the doors of the city jail there were opened while last night. There was not a prisoner in it, it being "tenantless" for the first time in many years.

Story of the Thimble.
The modern thimble dates from 1651, when the goldsmith, Nicholas Denachoten of Amsterdam, sent one as a birthday present to a lady with the dedication, "To my from van Rensselaer, this little object which I have invented and executed as a protective covering for her industrious fingers."

Parents' Caprice.
It is no wonder that during infancy and early childhood life's lessons are so difficult for the small beginner when the laws which govern them must seem to him just or unjust, consistent or inconsistent, according to the knowledge or the caprice of the adult administering them.

Feud Leads To Deadly Explosion

GERMANTOWN, MD., November 19.—James Bolton, a farmer whose home near here was dynamited early yesterday morning, died last night, bringing the death list in the explosion to three.

Mrs. Hattie Shipley, Bolton's housekeeper and whose two small children were killed instantly, is believed to be lying in bed in connection with the explosion.

Harding And Party Enjoy Balmly Gulf Breezes On Cruise

ON BOARD STEAMSHIP PAULINA, Nov. 18.—(By Wireless to the Associated Press) — President-elect Harding and his party enjoyed balmly gulf breezes under a clear sky today while his ship ploughed its way toward Panama.

The fare was crossed early today through a light fog but when the sunlight filtered through the party found almost perfect weather and sailing conditions.

The usual flying fish and porpoises were seen about the bow of the little white steamer as she cut through the dark blue waters of the gulf, bringing to many of the party their first glimpses of the marine life most familiar to those experienced in tropical cruising.

The president-elect, rested after the strenuous day spent in New Orleans yesterday when he made three speeches, shook hands with hundreds and smiled at numerous informal meetings.

The press sheets from the wireless room claimed his early attention today after which he "took it easy" in the social hall and on decks.

How To Keep Young And Guard Against A Premature Breakdown

A very large percentage of men and women of middle age break down prematurely from apoplexy, nerve, heart or kidney troubles.

The only way to avoid it is to keep the blood pure and strengthen the blood vessels by keeping the blood in proper balance.

If people in this vicinity wish to keep their blood pure and strengthen their blood vessels, they should take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. This medicine will not only supply the blood with the necessary elements, but it will also strengthen the blood vessels and improve the circulation.

Mrs. W. J. Nixon, says: "I was suffering for months, had no appetite and no strength; my doctor advised me to take a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I gave up a hearty appetite and my strength after everything else failed." Why don't you try them?

MRS. CHAPMAN GIVES RESIDENCE TO BE USED AS A CHILDREN'S HOME

Chapman, known as the Health Haven Home for Children, in honor of Mrs. Chapman's mother. Mrs. Chapman returned to Columbus Tuesday from Port Allegheny, where she went to complete arrangements for transfer of the home."

NEW YORK STOCKS

The decision of the United States and the corporation to maintain present prices unless a change become necessary added to the market's firm tone. This advantage was lost before the end of the first hour, when liquidation broke out afresh, beginning with specialties of food, chemicals and related groups. Corn producers dropped the price. American sugar and Virginia Carolina chemical 3 3/4. The drive against Crude steel forced that stock down 7 points with resultant heaviness in other stocks, also equipments. Ralls which had been 1 to 3 points higher after lead of Atchafalpa, cancelled their bids and shippers and oil reacted 1 to 2 points. No attention was paid to the 7 percent opening rate for call money and the strength of British exchange.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Many substantial recoveries from yesterday's extreme weakness were made by leading stocks at the opening of today's session. Short covering and some liquidation buying facilitated the rally which was most conspicuous in the railway division. Reading and Great Northern rose 1 3/4 points each, New York Central 1 1/2, Rock Island 1 3/8 and Southern Pacific and Erie 1 point. Baldwin locomotives was strongest of the industrials, rising 2 points and Atlantic Gulf recovered the better part of yesterday's loss. Other strong features included American car, Mexican and California petroleum and United States rubber. Losses of 1 to 2 points were made by Crude steel, Harvester and Louisville, and Nashville.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—All deliveries of wheat, corn and oats fell today to the lowest prices yet this season. It was asserted that there was no sufficient power to right the pressure which would result. Opening wheat prices, which varied from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 lower with December 1 1/2 to 1 7/8 and March 1 1/2 to 1 3/8, were followed by a slight rally and then by heavy downward plunges. Liquidation by holders was plainly evident in the corn market. After opening 1/2 to 3/4 lower including December at 62 1/2 to 63 1/2, the market recovered a trifle and then suffered a decided setback. Oats yielded to the bearish influence of corn, starting unchanged to 3/4 @ 3/4 off, May 50 1/2 to 50 1/2, scored a little upturn, and then made a sudden descent. Tumbling prices of grain and hog pulled down provisions.

"The exaggerated vampire of past cinema seasons has already been eliminated by progressive producers because the character was repulsive, overdrawn and illogical, but an unconventional woman must continue to teach the value of conventions through screen comparison," according to Miss Katherine MacDonald, who is called the most beautiful actress on the screen today. "I believe the bad woman is always, without exception, an object lesson and a warning, and the result can be nothing short of inestimable good."

$3,500,000 MAIL CAR ROBBERY CLEARED UP

BIG PART OF FUNDS IS RECOVERED

CINCINNATI, 18, Nov. 19.—Seven more arrests, one confession, the recovery of a large amount of money, all in ten dollar bills, and the discovery of an automobile last night, resulted today in the clearing up the mystery surrounding the $3,500,000 mail car robbery in the local yards Saturday night.

Two of the men, T. A. Daly and H. A. Reed, are white and the others are negroes. The money was recovered from a chicken house at the Daly home, following the confession of Reed who rooms at Daly's.

The total amount of money recovered was not announced by the officials this morning. Two persons in all are under arrest and will be given a hearing before United States Commissioner W. A. Byers, tomorrow.

The automobile believed to have been used for carrying away the mail bags was found last night in a rented garage a few blocks from the scene of the robbery. The number on the engine had been tampered with.

Reed and Daly believed by officers to be leaders of the gang, are each 45 years of age. Daly has been working at the Omaha Grain Exchange, but Reed has been unemployed the last few weeks.

Reed was arrested last night following his implication in the case by Fred Loffenberger, a youth arrested several days ago. Reed was put through a severe grilling and at length gave information which led to the arrest this morning of Daly.

Federal officers announced this morning that the case had been completed to all intents and purposes. The lack of currency, gold and bonds whose value has been given authoritatively as high as three and a half million dollars were taken from a Chicago, Burlington and Quincy mail train last Saturday. They were bound from San Francisco in a sealed cargo container in the east.

Mrs. Daly, wife of the man under arrest, officials say, made a statement that her husband was at home at the time of the robbery and that Poffenberger brought the money to her home early Sunday morning, wrapped in packages.

According to Mrs. Daly's statement she overheard the men say that they had buried the rest of the contents of the sacks. After counting the money over, the statement continues, they hid it in the chicken house where it was found this morning by officials.

Women Fined For Not Removing Their Hats In The Court Room

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Equal suffrage for women means that they must not wear their hats when in this courtroom, Justice of the Peace E. F. Aring declared when he fined two women $5 each for contempt of court when they refused to remove their hats. The women paid.

When the Justice called the court to order, he said:

"Everybody will please remove their hats."

Mrs. Oscar McCann and Mrs. Frederick Ritter failed to do so. The court hesitated a moment, but the two continued to wear their hats.

"Five dollars and cost for contempt of court," said the Justice. "If women can have equal suffrage with men they can also remove their hats in my court room."

"Uncle Sam's Figures On Jap Population In Calif. Too Low,"

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 19.—The Japanese population figures for California, announced by the United States census bureau last Tuesday as being 10,136, are far short of the actual number of Japanese residents in the state, according to an article published in the REE under the signature of V. S. McClatchy its publisher.

The article declared that a census of the Japanese population of the state taken this year by the various Japanese associations, places the figures at 78,000 not including 5,000 California born subjects now in school in Japan, who will return to this state.

The state board of control estimates the Japanese population at 87,000 and the registrar of vital statistics of the state board of health fixes the number at 80,000, although Mr. McClatchy says the registrar in a published signal article says "it is the personal opinion that the actual Japanese population is 100,000."

PITTSBURGH SLIDE COST MILLIONS

PITTSBURGH, PA., Nov. 19.—Damage estimated by engineers to vary from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 will result from the great slide of earth and stones which for the past two weeks has been steadily moving down the hillside from Bigelow boulevard to the downtown passenger terminal of the Pennsylvania railroad here. Nine steam shovels are working day and night to move the earth as it reaches the railroad tracks and approximately five thousand tons are sent out on special trains every 24 hours.

The slide began when the city attempted to straighten a curve in the boulevard which follows the hillside high above the railroad terminal and connects the business section of the city with the east end residence district. Some 200,000 cubic yards of earth had been cut from the hill and dumped into a ravine before the engineers discovered that the earth was moving steadily toward the railroad. Piling driven into the hill failed to stop the movement, and within a day or two, a railroad yard building in the path of the slide was buried. Later two men and six tracks of less importance leading into the terminal were lost in spite of the desperate efforts made by the engineers and large forces of workmen to avert the calamity.

The slide, which moves at the rate of about one foot an hour, has reached a point where it was necessary today for the railroad company to route all trains on the Monongahela division by way of the Fourth avenue railroad, while suburban service to the east was curtailed through the consolidation of certain trains.

Railroad officials have prepared an emergency schedule by which through passenger trains over the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago railroad and the Pan Handle railroad will be routed around the business center to the East Liberty station, four miles east of the downtown terminal.

Wholesale Raids On Cincinnati Breweries

CINCINNATI, O., November 19.—Important developments are expected to follow raids made yesterday by federal prohibition agents on eight Cincinnati breweries and approximately 100 saloons. The raids were conducted by 25 prohibition agents brought here from northern Ohio by Special Agent in Charge of the Ohio-Maryland division, Thomas E. Stone, of Baltimore, who is in charge of the Ohio-Maryland division.

At each place visited the agents took samples of beer and placed internal revenue seals on liquid goods not taken, warning the proprietors that no sales were to be made from the stocks until the samples which had been taken could be analyzed.

It was said at the government building that analysis of samples of beer obtained by the prohibition agents and deputies from the office of the internal revenue collector have in a number of instances shown an alcoholic content in excess of the legal amount. It was indicated that in some cases the alcoholic content ran as high as 3 1/2 and 4 percent.

Under the federal prohibition act, and also under the internal revenue laws, breweries which manufacture beer containing an alcoholic content of one-half of one percent or more are subject to seizure by the federal government. The information is that should samples from several of the breweries visited by federal agents yesterday disclose an illegal alcoholic content, there is prospect that the internal revenue department officials at Washington will direct the seizure of these plants.

Secrecy surrounded the movement of the prohibition agents yesterday and all efforts to obtain from Supervising Prohibition Agent Stone details as to the raids and as to the government's plans, were without result.

May Arrange Big Game Tonight

State Off For Urbana

William A. Brooks, manager of the Smoke House team, will be at the Smoke House tonight at 7:30 to confer with the manager of the local team in regard to a game between the Smoke House and the Smoke House either at Portsmouth or Ironton.

The Ironton eleven has been invited to play a game with the Smoke House.

In the Selby (Girls) Bowling League Thursday night the Peerless Five found it easy to win three from the Smoke House. The Peerless Five were all up with the Smoke House for first place. M. Erick rolled high with a total score of 245 plus.

P. H. S. BASKETBALLERS TO GET BUSY

P. H. S. will get down to work at once for the coming basketball season now that the football boys have been laid aside for another year.

When the Ashland game for today was cancelled it was also decided to call off the Thanksgiving Day game as no out of town team could be looked up and the local eleven did not wish to play an Alumni eleven saying that there was no glory in such a game. The local school had several chances earlier in the season for Turkey Day games but did not enter into any contract, expecting to look a game later in the season. When an effort was made to look a game in the last few weeks it was found that all the schools had their schedule completed.

Captain McComb who has been looking after the football coaching will be the basketball coach. Captain Fred Muller of the football eleven is captain of the basketball eleven. The success of the team this year will determine largely whether or not Captain Muller gets into the game. His injured knee is knitting but not as quickly as it would like to. There are several players left from last year's team and plenty of raw material from which several players could be selected for a good basketball five. Besides Muller, O'Brien, Wilson and Frazier played last year. Other possible candidates include: Pritch, Doll, Chubb, River, Cunniff and Cress.

WORLD SERIES MONEY HELD UP

BIG COLLEGE TEAM MAY PLAY HERE

Since the P. H. S. football team has called off all future engagements for this season, Millbrook park gridiron will be open for Thanksgiving Day, and it is likely that the N. & W. Smoke House team will book a game for here on that day.

It is probable that Morris-Harvey College of Huntington will be induced to come here for a game against the local independent eleven.

The N. & W. Smoke House team had a game booked with Zanesville there, but if a contract is secured with Morris-Harvey this Turkey Day game away from home will be cancelled.

Coach McCormick, was as usual, the star for the High School Teachers, but C. D. Walden was not far behind when it came to serving, making ten points on a straight during the second game. LIBERTY STATUE HELPS TO HONOR NURSE'S MEMORY

On the other hand it was reported today that the commission thinks the money should be divided into 24 and 12 shares, which number would include the seven members of the 1920 team under indictment. These are Weaver, Clout, Williams, Jackson, Felsch, Hilsberg and McMullin. Chuck Gault is the eighth indicted man but did not wear a White Sox uniform in 1920. Fifteen of the players, Mattie Glennon, Ted Joranson, Edith Collins, John Collins, Ray Schalk, Edith Murphy, Harry Laddell, Anson Strunk, Bob Falk, Dick Kerr, Arno Faber, Roy Wilkinson, Harvey McMillan, and Bird Lyon were voted in for full shares.

One half share was voted the full secretary, Walter Clark and two full shares were split up between Foster, Denard, Rees, Payne and Truitt Stevenson.

Walter Clark is a brother-in-law of Harry Denton of this city and was married in Ironton last Thursday.

Barbara Villiers a "Throwback"

After the fall of the Cromwell regime, Charles II came back from exile to England, acclaimed as King with a welcome more delicious than ever English sovereign had received before. And while the people shouted and rejoiced, the king slipped away and hid with Barbara Villiers, a woman who was later to be more notorious than any other woman of his time. She was the daughter of a noble and a soldier, a courageous soldier who had died in battle. It is one of the legends of her life that his daughter should have been the most famous and beautiful of her race.

Two special trains from Columbus to Urbana bearing a carload of human freight to see the Ohio State and Illinois teams clash, will leave Columbus Friday and will include 10 Pullmans, four day coaches, two diners and two team coaches. Additional cars may be added at the last minute.

Scores of trucks and touring cars are already needed for Illinois, despite the wintry weather, while the usual large number of student buses are travelling via the box car route.

The Illinois players will be unnumbered in Saturday's game that will decide the winner of the Big Ten meet. This kick depended the winning of a championship in the Western Conference or a triple tie for the honor.

When Jack Dunn, Michigan quarterback, failed to kick goal after his dash of 80 yards through the entire Illinois team for a touchdown, he did not feel like kicking him, especially when the game ended 7-6 in favor of Illinois. After next Saturday it may be that the entire Wisconsin and Ohio State student bodies will feel like kicking him. Fortune must have been smiling up her sleeve when Dunn stepped up to kick that ball. For game.

Ohio State fans will hold huge parades in Champaign and Urbana, Saturday.

The Buckeye eleven left for Urbana at six o'clock last night.

The Times will receive play-by-play accounts of the Big Ten championship game.

URBANA, Ill., Nov. 18.—Joy over the news that Halfback Don Depler may recover from the injury to his arm and be able to play part of the game against Ohio State next Saturday, was turned to gloom today when it was learned that Captain John Depler, center, received a serious injury to his shoulder in the final four minutes of scrimmage last night.

The only reserve center of the Illinois team is in one period.

PATRONIZE AMERICAN SHIPS

THAT business competition may be sharp and even ruthless between nations otherwise friendly is indicated by the statement of the chairman of the United States Shipping Board advising American exporters to patronize American ships. He intimates that foreign shipping interests, jealous of the business going to vessels flying the Stars and Stripes would like to drive our flag off the sea, and to that end may reduce their freight rates so greatly below those charged by the American merchant marine that the latter will be forced out of business, whereupon the foreigners, left without competition, will raise their rates to the highest point that the traffic will bear.

Developments in maritime commerce have not taken just the turn that our European competitors anticipated and desired. Germany, it is true, has been eliminated from the ocean trade; but the United States, an almost negligible rival in this trade before the war, gives promise of being as formidable a contender as Germany was. The chairman of the shipping board gives out figures to show that the majority of imports now coming to the United States arrive in American bottoms. For example, during the week ended October 30, the last for which statistics are available, the board's records show 158 American ships arrived with 174,844 tons, compared with 109 foreign ships with 85,908 tons, while 131 foreign vessels arrived in ballast against only 77 American ships. Naturally such a situation as this is making the foreign shipping interests, which used to enjoy so much larger a proportion of our trade, uneasy. Patriotic consideration would seem to dictate that, so far as is possible, Americans give their ocean business to American ships.

DRESSING LIKE EVE

WHEN some smart aleck laughs at the old Bible story of Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden, just you laugh right back. It is easy enough to ridicule. It is pretty hard to prove.

But on the side of the story evidence has been found that Adam and Eve were likely to wear fig leaves as clothes. For in India live the Juangs, 11,000 of them, and that's just what they dress in. So there now, Mister Skeptic.

The ancestry of the Juangs has been untraced since their first ancestors emerged from the animal life of the jungle. They come as near being apes as any human being can, and still call Adam grandpa.

The costume—from which, by the way, the tribe got its name—consists of two bunches of leaves, one in front and one in back, thrust into a belt of string decorated with clay stems. The dress is changed each day, and as a result the outskirts of Juang villages are ankle deep in the discarded flimsy.

Emerging from her home in the rocks, the goddess of the Raptui river, so the legend goes, once saw several of the Juang women dancing without anything on to speak of. She was outraged, and ordered the leaf dress, with the threat that should the tribe abandon it the curse of death would fall on the women and the tribe would be exterminated.

THE ARMENIAN ARMISTICE

THE Christian world cannot but rejoice over the signing of the armistice between Armenia and Turkey. If this is to mean the cessation of warfare between the crescent and the cross, it is a mark of progress. For it is time that religious differences were no longer made a cause, or an excuse, for the fighting of nations.

Armenia and her sufferings have been the subjects of widespread sympathy throughout America. This Christian nation in Asia, set down in the midst of Moslems, for many centuries has kept the faith without wavering. Now peace shines, and the world can be glad for Armenia. It can be glad, too, for Turkey, that old republic among nations that has recently been about excluded from Europe and finds itself with dwindling power in Asia Minor. Those who would eliminate the Turkish nation speak perhaps with a calm consideration of the problems of the Near East. Mohammedans form a body religious of some 200,000,000. Their traditional history is built about Turkey. It may be good, it may be bad, in any case they are entitled to it. Let us be fair in dealing with Turkey. But let us also keep her well in hand in the treatment that she gives to the Armenians.

Perhaps some day affairs will be so quieted that it will be possible to get wildly excited about a world's heavyweight championship prize fight.

Paris courts raise objections to Americans using their facilities for obtaining divorces. It appears that they are perfectly willing for Reno, Chicago and other American cities to retain distinction in that line.

The Recreation Of The Saints

By Frederick J. Haskin

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, November 19.—Very seldom do you find church authorities in the entertainment business, running playhouses and amusement parks. But in Salt Lake City, where the church is the center of life, these things are not included in the average preacher's duties. Which is regrettable, because in Salt Lake City the Mormons have demonstrated that church elders may handle such affairs with special skill.

Nearly all of the recreation facilities here are owned and managed by the Latter Day Saints. The Salt Lake City Theater is operated by the Mormon church, which is not at all opposed to forces and musical comedies; most of the dance halls of the city are provided by it; and Saltair, the local summer resort located on the Great Salt Lake, is under Mormon management.

The various dances which have from time to time occupied the scandalized attention of other religious sects, have never created a stir in Salt Lake City. They are taken as a matter of course, and dancing is held to be a worthy pursuit of man, pleasing in the sight of the Lord. At least three nights a week dances are held in connection with the Mormon houses of worship, and the seal of churchly approval is stamped upon them by an opening prayer.

It is greatly to the credit of the Saints that they have never been misrepresented on the subject of recreation. Brigham Young always held that it was as essential to human existence as food and air, and hence deserved the highest consideration. The first public buildings to be erected in Salt Lake City by the Mormon pioneers were a church and a school house. The next was a theater—a quaint little hall which is still standing and in good condition. Here the Mormon farmers gave their own theatrical performances until their audiences outgrew the little hall. Then Brigham Young built the Salt Lake Theater, a large playhouse designed for professional as well as amateur performances, and confiscated the little playhouse for a private school for his numerous children. Doubtless, they, too, in time, outgrew its meager dimensions.

An Historic Theater
The Salt Lake Theater, which resembles an old wartime wood-out of Paris Theater in Washington, is one of the most interesting institutions in the city. It is the second-oldest theater in America, the oldest being the Walnut Street Theater in Philadelphia. Although it receives all the latest hits from New York, it belongs obviously to the early period of the American drama. You feel, in wandering about its shabby old galleries, that it must be the modern drama rather than the old. The theater is a relic of the old days of Booth and Barrett.

Shown in its cellar are many relics of this period; for at Salt Lake, where the fashionable churches of the east were refusing even to bury theatrical folk, the Mormons were producing everything from Shakespeare to popular burlesque. These relics, which some day are to be gathered together and housed in an appropriate museum, are now scattered about the various underground property rooms, having dirt floors and ceilings of wooden planks.

From such a dusty compartment, the present-day property man, who conducted us about the theater, drew forth a wooden emble of the American colonial period.

"This," he said, "is the cradle in which Maudie Adams made her debut on the stage. It was just by chance she got the part." It was just by chance she got the part. For at the last minute the property man could not locate the usual rag-doll, and the play could not proceed without at least the suggestion of a baby. Some one ran into the green-room and grabbed Maudie from her mother's arms and exposed her in like a huge, square tank.

A Church Amusement Park

Saltair, the other great amusement enterprise of the Mormons, is not so historical, but in many ways is also unique. It is located on the Great Salt Lake and is reached by a deceptively electric line, which makes the 12 miles from the city at a jaunty and dangerous clip, considering its embedded condition. On the way you pass through part of the fertile Salt Lake Valley and then into an expanse of salt, where great mounds of the mineral are stored for shipment.

All the whirligigs and dizzy drops and other sensational apparatus provided by most amusement parks are gathered together on a large concrete pavilion at Saltair, surrounding which is the lake. Roller-coasters, flying boats, shooting galleries, skating rinks, old mills and a large dance hall contribute to the din and dizzy activity of the place. At one end is the bathing beach, where part of the lake has been forced in like a huge, square tank.

Bathing in the Great Salt Lake is a curious experience, like no other kind of bathing in the world. Whereas in the usual bodies of water it is a constant struggle to keep afloat, in the Salt Lake it often requires a long and arduous struggle to go down. Walking on the bottom is accomplished only with great skill and patience. Your feet must be lifted slowly and surreptitiously lest they rise suddenly, out to return. Your head must be held far out of the water, even while swimming, to prevent the salt from getting in your eyes, but this does not cause your body to sink. Nothing causes your body to sink, except the heroic effort it takes as you were made of cork.

Most of the bathers that about the lake in a striding position, sagging downward in the middle, with their heads and feet pointing upward. Occasionally, also, you see a man trying feebly in the water with a lighted cigar in his mouth.

As the water contains about 21 percent salt, it is extremely stimulating, and you come out. Hence you can see that the Mormons do not take advantage of all their business opportunities, for no restaurant is operated in connection with Saltair. But a large pavilion for games is provided, filled with tables and benches, and this is crowded every evening with family parties, containing huge numbers of children. Overhead is one of the largest dance halls in the country, with a beautiful polished floor. From the west windows of this hall you can look out across a wide expanse of lake to the rugged cliffs of Antelope Island, and beyond that to the distant horizon which at twilight turns into a riot of magnificent colors like a gorgeous dog unfurled by the setting sun.

The atmosphere of the church does not intrude itself at Saltair, and many of the visitors who crowd its amusement facilities do not even know that it is operated by a sect that recognized the importance of recreation long before there was a Young Men's Christian Association.

Brigham Young was not the only high official of the church to take a special interest in the theater. For, as all the bishops of early days had trained as actors in the first small playhouses, they had conceived a great liking for the drama. Just as the right plot stage box was nearly always occupied by Young, for whom it was reserved, so the under box was usually filled with the several church apostles. One of the bishops, Joseph Lindsey, loved the theater so well, that he requested to be buried from it.

Judged by the standard of our metropolitan theaters today, this playhouse seems rather dingy, cramped and small. The Mormon leaders recognize this and realize that a new, larger house is needed to accommodate the younger generation, which is not so much interested in historical atmosphere as in good seats. So already plans for a new theater have been drawn up, to be built according to the property man, in connection with a great hotel that is to edify in size and magnificence even the present Hotel Utah of the city.

A Movable Record
A traveler passing through a small country town noticed a post on which the height was marked to which the river had risen during a recent flood. "Do you mean to say," he asked a native, "that the river rose as high as that?" "Oh, no," replied the native; "that the village children used to rub off the original mark, so the mayor ordered it to be put higher up so as to be out of their reach."—Credit Lost.

The candidate waited until the laughter had died down, then replied, "If I had anything to tell a bad egg, I think I should break it gently."

"Uncle Tom searched carefully for the tag. A bit of faded cord was all that remained."

"That's every goat," he exploded wrathfully. "You know said that ignorant goat doesn't completely set up his destination."

RED CROSS DRIVE MEETS WITH SUCCESS

HOMER IS ROBBED

Encouraging reports as to the progress of the house-to-house and factory campaign being made in the interest of the Fourth Red Cross Headquarters and officials in charge of the drive are well-satisfied with the showing thus far.

The canvassers all got an early start this morning and are showing a fine spirit of enthusiasm which speaks well for the success of the drive.

The city workers have all been asked to make a first report tonight and the real progress of the campaign will be known tomorrow.

A score of girls were at work in the Whiteaker-Glessner Company on Thursday and a large number of memberships were secured.

Officials of the company gave the girls permission to work through the various departments while the men were at work. Few refusals to subscribe were received by the workers. Other factories are being canvassed and the outlook is encouraging in all directions.

Mrs. Charles Euton is ill at her home in South Portsmouth.

Hunter Is Killed

The first fatal hunting accident of this part of the state was recorded Thursday afternoon when Walter Fields, 30 years old, married, farmer of near West Union, Adams county, was accidentally shot and killed by his neighbor and hunting friend, Paul Barnes, 30 years old and married. The men were out on a hunt in the woods near West Union and had been out several hours when they closed a rabbit to a brush pile. Both men climbed on the brush pile and were endeavoring to secure the animal when Barnes' gun slipped and in falling his hand slid down the gun barrel and against the trigger, discharging the gun. The men were close together and Fields received the full contents of the single barrel in his left knee. Both bones in the knee were broken. Barnes hurried to a neighboring farm house and secured help and the wounded man was carried to the house where Dr. Ellison of West Union attended him.

Fields had lost considerably blood by the time the physician had reached him. Although the doctor remained with him until a few minutes before death he was unable to prolong life. Fields is survived by his widow, Farris is a nervous wreck over the fatal shooting and at Manchester this morning it was stated that no charges would be filed as the shooting was purely accidental.

WIRELESS SCOUTS HOLD FIRST MEETING

The Wireless Scouts held their first meeting of the fall last night at Scout Headquarters, and organized for the winter.

The Scout Executive formally turned the entire third floor over to the exclusive use of the Wireless Scouts, and Ralph Monk was assigned the job of putting on a fitting lock. Scout Gilligan reported the men up and ready for use. A committee was appointed to confer with Patrol Leader Blair, as to what new instruments were needed.

VANGUARD OF NEW ADMINISTRATION REACHING CAPITAL

These photos from Washington show a few of the new representatives making arrangements for residing in Washington during the first session of congress under the new administration. Left to right: Above, Thomas A. Chandler, first district, Ohio; G. K. Farrow, sixth district, Louisiana; Walter M. Chandler, nineteenth district, New York; Henry Fairchild, twenty-fourth district, New York; Middle row: J. M. Nelson, third district, Wisconsin; Maj. L. A. Frothingham, fourteenth district, Mass.; R. O. Woodruff, tenth district, Mich.; Below: Theodore Burton, twenty-second district, Ohio; P. J. Ten Eyck, twenty-eighth district, New York; D. E. Garrett, eighth district, Texas.

It is estimated that the change in the administration at the national capital will bring approximately 8,000 new faces to Washington in the next few months. These newcomers will include newly elected officials and appointees from ambassadors down to punkies. The vanguard of the new members of the house and senate is beginning to arrive, principally to spend a few weeks getting acclimated and arrange living quarters. The photos above introduce a few of the men who will compose the new house. Not all of the "new faces" are newcomers at the capital by any means. Rep. Ten Eyck is returning as a "new face" following an absence of several years after serving as U. S. senator.

FEUD LEADS TO DEADLY EXPLOSION

GERMANTOWN, Md., November 18.—James Bolton, a farmer whose home near here was dynamited early yesterday morning, died last night, being the death list in the explosion to three. Mrs. Hattie Shipley, Bolton's housekeeper and whose two small children were killed instantly, is believed mortally injured. Vernon Thompson is being held in connection with the explosion.

Montgomery county authorities said an investigation showed that Bolton and Thompson had been enemies of long standing, and that their enemy culminated election day, in which Thompson was shot in the neck by Bolton. Thompson recently left a hospital and police say his arrest was based on threats he is alleged to have made against Bolton.

Fifty pounds of dynamite taken from a Germantown hardware store is believed to have been used in the destruction of the Bolton home. The charge was placed against the side of the house next to Bolton's bedroom and the building was practically demolished.

Both Thompson and his wife, the authorities said, made conflicting statements as to his whereabouts during the election day, in which Thompson

Huntington Trooper Slain In Gun Duel

CHARLESTON, W. Va., November 18.—Ernest Leo Hippy, a member of the state police force, on duty at Vulcan, Mingo county, was killed by a man said to have been William Hatfield, known in the community as "a dangerous agitator." It was stated by Col. and Jackson Arnold, superintendent of the state department of public safety. After being mortally wounded, Hippy pulled his own gun and fatally wounded his assailant, both dying within a half hour, according to vague reports of the shooting received by Colonel Arnold and Governor John J. Cornwell. Reports received from private sources by Governor Cornwell were to the effect that Hippy was walking along the railroad track near Vulcan when he met Hatfield. The latter ordered Hippy to raise his hands. When the state policeman complied, Hatfield shot him.

The governor says he was informed before he collapsed. Hippy drew his revolver from his holster and shot Hatfield. There was no trouble between the men, according to the governor's informant.

Governor Cornwell would make no statement of the shooting. When asked if he contemplated again calling federal troops, he said that would depend entirely on the situation.

Private Hippy, who resided at Huntington, joined the state police in June, 1920. During the World War he served with the United States marine corps. Hippy is the first trooper to be killed since the constabulary was organized. Disorders which have occurred in the Mingo coal strike zone since the federal troops were withdrawn several weeks ago, has revived plans of county officials for the reconstruction of law enforcement agencies.

More members are wanted for the Portsmouth Choral Society that was organized several weeks ago and which holds meetings every Monday night at 7:30 in the public library.

The members of the club desire more members and wish to have it known that the club is open to all who share, not necessarily trained vocalists and all those who are interested in the next meeting.

The officers of the organization are: H. H. Meade, president; Miss Edith Wally, secretary; and Arthur Kane, treasurer. Joseph Kerslaw is the director. There are about 40 members of the Choral Society at the present time.
